CONGRESSIONAL.

The Conferee Convention for this Congressional District meets to-morrow, the 12th inst., in Williamsport, to place in nomination a candidate for Congress, to serve for two years next ensuing.—The district is composed of Centre, Lycoming, Clinton, Tioga and Potter counties. The District is strongly Republican, and can, with harmony in our ranks, roll up a majority of at least two thousand for a good and true man.—Centre county presents just such a man as a candidate in the person of GEO. M. YOCUM, ESQ., of this Borough—a man who has been long and favorably known to our people as an able lawyer, an honest and conscientious christian gentleman.

Having risen from the ranks of the people, and obtained an excellent education by his own energy, he is peculiarly acquainted with their wants and wishes, and justly regarded as the friend of the workingman.

Mr. Yocum graduated at Williamsport Dickinson Seminary in June 1860, receiving the highest honors of his class, and in 1861 commenced the study of law under Hon. C. A. Mayer and S. D. Ball, Esq's., of Lock Haven.

He was admitted to the Bar in December 1862, and immediately came to Centre county and entered into partnership with D. G. Bush, Esq., in the practice of his profession. His success at the Bar is not excelled by any man of his age in the District. As a speaker, Mr. Yocum is clear, concise and forcible.

A ripe scholar and an earnest student, his political efforts are replete with information and convincing argument.

Retiring and unassuming in his demeanor, he has never courted political favor, and yet, among all our citizens, there is none who could command a larger support from all classes of our people.

He is well versed in all the varied industries of our State, and his ablest political arguments have been made in support of a PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

A life-long Republican, he has laborbored earnestly for the success of the party, and if nominated, he will, most assuredly, be elected, and will make a representative of whom this Congressinal District may well be proud, and one whose voice and vote will always support the best interests of the people.

We ask the conferees who will assemble on to-morrow, to act well their part, and study the best interests of the whole District feeling confident, if they do this, they will unanimously nominate GEORGE M. YOCUM, ESQ., and thus render success certain.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The campaign is now fully opened in Pennsylvania. There are but four weeks for work, and during that period every man that can talk will be on the stump. Both Republicans and Democrats will spare not a minute. The Liberals and Democrats have grown desperate, and they have determined to bring all their "big guns," from Maine, Vermont, North Carolina and other States, in which they have abandoned all hope, into Pennsylvania to make one grand rally for life and power.

Knowing this to be the programme of the "Confederate" party, we urge upon the Republicans of Centre county, and of the whole State, to buckle on the whole armor, close up the ranks, and determine to "fight it out on this line" until the day of the election.

Friends, listen to our counsel, and work and organize, organize and work, and we pledge you 20,000 majority in Pennsylvania for Gen. John F. Hartranft and the entire State ticket.

MEETINGS.

Our able and efficient Chairman of the County Committee, John T. Johnston, Esq., has determined to hold meetings in all, or nearly all, the townships in the county. The posters will be sent out as soon as they can be printed, and at the proper time, giving notice of the time when, and places where, such meetings will be held. Mr. Johnston has been Chairman three or four times before, and, therefore understands his business.

Republicans of Centre, let us hold up his hands and aid him in every way we can. If yu so determine, if you will do your whole duty, and work and vote, we can elect our ticket and redeem the county.

CONSISTENCY.

The Watchman asks the people to support Mr. Grenoble, for Recorder, instead Andrew Gregg, because he, Mr. Grenoble, is a one legged soldier. In the same paper, and in the same breath, it asks the people to vote against Henry Eckinroth, a one-armed soldier and a poor man, and to vote in favor of John I. Morrison, the present incumbent, who has never done anything for his country. "Oh! Consistency, thou art a jewel."

How strong the love of Mr. Morrison and the Democratic party was for the soldier during the war is well known to our people, and they also know right well about all Capt. Morrison did for his country, or ever has done for the Democratic party. He must make way for Eckinroth. He must retire. The people have so declared.

Why make a one-term man of John Moran, and spare and honor Capt. Morrison? Is it fair? Is it honest? Is there any Democratic consistency in it?

But, says the Watchman, you must vote for Grenoble because he was a soldier. And vote against Henry Eckinroth because he was a soldier. And vote for Capt. John I. Morrison because he was not a soldier, opposed the war, and joined P. G. Meek in declaring that all soldiers were "Lincoln hirelings."

YOU MUST vote against Gen. John F. Hartranft, because he was a soldier—the hero of twenty battles,

AND VOTE FOR

Charles R. Buckalew, because he was not a "Lincoln hireling," and because every vote he ever cast in the United States Senate was against his Government, against the soldiers and in favor of Jeff. Davis' Southern Confederacy.

Consistent Meek! Truthful, honest(?) Meek! Now for Greeley, and now against Greeley. To-day for a straight-out ticket, to-morrow back again in the Greeley groove. Democrats of Centre, can you swallow this? Where are you? What are you? Where, and what, is your party?

LEVI A. MILLER.

The Grant candidate for Sheriff, is already out electioneering. Of course Levi wants to make as good a show as he can, but where's the use in fighting old "Shaf?"—Watchman.

Ha! We have you at last. You try to whistle to keep your courage up.—You repeat your game of brag. But how well you know 'old Shaf' is doomed to defeat. Your article proves that you have given up all hope of beating the indefatigable and energetic Levi A. Miller, the brave soldier and clever man. Levi is a fast nag—2:28½ for a two mile heat. He will knock the wind out of your "Old Shaf." The workingmen and mechanics of Centre county have been rubbing down and preparing our nag for the course for the last three months. They bet high on him. They know just what he can do. They are determined that rich men shall not hereafter win all the races, nor hold all the offices. Look out for Levi A. Miller. Republicans of Centre, rally to a man. Rally every one. Do your whole duty and "Old Shaf." will be permitted to remain at home and take care of his turnpike and his immense wealth.

THE PROSPECT.

We confidently assure the Republicans of Pennsylvania, that here in Centre county, Gen. Jno. F. Hartranft is gaining strength every day. The infamous and libelous attacks of the Philadelphia Press are working him great good. He will poll an increased vote in this county. The soldiers who fought under Hartranft will vote for him. They know him personally and well. They also fully understand the treasonable record of Charles R. Buckalew. They will sustain the patriot soldier and vote down the rebel sympathizer.

ASSEMBLY.

John G. Kurtz, who, for ten years, was the able, independent and fearless editor of the Central Press, in this county, is now, by virtue of the action of your County Convention, before you as your candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Kurtz is well known. He needs no praise from us. He will, if elected, make an excellent member. It is our duty, as it should be our pride, to elect him. A full vote, and no scratching, will do the work.

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!—We implore you, friends, to organize for victory and the redemption of Centre county from Democratic misrule. We can carry the county if you will only determine to do so and work earnestly and energetically to accomplish that desired end. Work, work, organize and work.

Keep it Before the People,

That the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. Company BOUGHT BUCKALEW'S NOMINATION OVER GEO. W. CASS, and that this purchased control of the Democratic Convention is notorious, and has been denounced by high Democratic authority.

Keep it Before the People,

That Buckalew attempted to destroy the usefulness of the bill to secure safety to the miners, and DID DEFEAT a supplement intended to give that law immediate force and complete effect to save the lives of the LABORING MEN.

Keep it Before the People,

That in the Senate of the United States HE NEVER GAVE A VOTE—never spoke a word that can be tortured into the appearance of support of our soldiers' or in opposition to the monstrous and wicked Rebellion waged to destroy our country.

And do not Forget,

That Buckalew skulked to Canada to consult REBELS, engaged in PLOTS to embarrass his country in war waged for National existence; to burn the cities of Pennsylvania and other States; to introduce infection and pestilence in the North, and to MURDER Abraham Lincoln.

Tax-payers, Remember,

That these are facts from the public record of Charles R. Buckalew, and proven against him from most reliable testimony and official papers—testimony which cannot be contradicted nor impugned. And

Keep it before the People.

That these facts have been frequently published in the Harrisburg Telegraph, and other leading Republican journals, during the present canvass, and not a single Democratic, or Greeley, or confederate organ in the State has attempted to contradict them. WHY? The answer is easy.

FOR HARTRANFT

In proof of what we say elsewhere in relation to those who fought with Gen. Hartranft, and those who know him best and longest, being his warmest and most ardent supporters, we clip the following from the Harrisburg State Journal:—

"Gen. Wm. H. Blair, of Centre county, an old line Democrat, who never voted a Republican ticket except for Andrew G. Curtin, in 1863, is out for Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor. Gen. Blairs served as a captain in Gen. Hartranft's regiment, from which he passed through all the grades until he reached that of brigadier general, a position bestowed in recognition of gallant services at Antietam bridge. We know Gen. Blair to be one of the most reliable and intelligent citizens in Centre county, where he is recognized as an influential man whose leadership has never been known to be wrong. Such Democrats cannot pass Hartranft to vote for Buckalew. The men who served with Hartranft in the army, and who know him best as a soldier and a man, adhere to him in this contest, without regard to politics, a fact which the defamers of the hero of Fort Stedman have not yet come to understand."

What the Journal says in regard to the reliability and bravery of Gen. Blair, is known to every man in Centre county. He is, moreover, one of the best and most far-seeing politicians in the Democratic party in this county, and we might add, one of the most independent. He has always been in favor of Gen. Hartranft because he knows him personally, and knows him to be an honest man and a brave and heroic soldier.

There are many more brave soldiers in this county who fought with Hartranft, who will vote for him. Centre county will give a good account of herself.

THE RIGHT NAME.

Pass it around. The Pittsburg Dispatch hits the nail on the head and secures the right name for the mongrel party that is opposing GRANT when it says: "It is a little singular that none of us have hit upon the word "Confederate" as the proper descriptive name for the Democratic Liberal combination. What could be more expressive or fit than Confederate? Isn't the new conglomerate party in favor of the old doctrine of a States rights confederation? Don't it contain all the debris of the late Southern Confederacy? And isn't it a confederation of all the odds and ends floating about in American politics, for the single purpose of "beating Grant?" Then let us have it—Confederate party."

GOV. CURTIN.

HE DEFINES HIS POSITION!

A LETTER to his FRIENDS!

The following letter addressed to Gen. James A. Beaver, and others named below, and handed to us by the first named gentleman for publication, so clearly and emphatically defines the position of our esteemed fellow-townsman, Governor Curtin, as to silence the guns of the Liberal Democracy, and close the mouths of his enemies forever. It is to be regretted that the precarious state of Governor Curtin's health prevents him from accepting this nomination, as he was the unanimous choice of the people of this county, and as we are assured, of the entire district, for this office:

NEW YORK, Sept. 7th, 1872.

To James A. Beaver, E. C. Humes, E. Blanchard, James Milliken, John T. Johnston, John Irwin, Jr., A. O. Furst, H. N. McAllister, Wm. P. Wilson, Geo. M. Yocum:

GENTLEMEN:—I have been so prostrated by illness, since my return, that I have not attempted correspondence, and letters received remain unanswered.

My physician has peremptorialy forbidden me to confer with my friends upon any subject at present, and I am now compelled to write by an amanuensis. Your letter advising me of the unanimous action of the Republicans of my native county, presenting me as a candidate for Congress, was received several days since, and I have received letters and telegrams from the other counties of the district, assuring me of the general desire to present my name as a candidate for that office. Such an expression of confidence and devotion coming from the people who know me best; and for whom I cherish the strongest affection; moves me with profoundest gratitude, and will be cherished among the most grateful memories of my life.

When the conflicts of ambition and the exacting cares of official life have given place to the Supreme desire for the rest and quiet of home and neighbors, your kind welcome on my return calls for the sincerest expression of my thanks. But independent of my indisposition to enter the political canvas as a candidate and the centre of a fierce political struggle of the issues involved in the contest, it is impossible for me to accept the honor you propose to confer upon me, my broken health forbids it, and its admonitions I must respect.

Be pleased, therefere, to convey to my friends in Centre county and the other counties of the Congressional district, who in their kind partiality have thought of me as a candidate, my many thanks and declination. I herewith present a note from Dr. Willard Parker to Mrs. Curtin, you notice his opinion is very decided and you know quite well how eminent he is in his profession. I am encouraged by Dr. Parker, to hope that after a little while of absolute rest, skillful medical treatment and freedom from care and excitement, I may become strong enough to assist you in discussing the pending political issues. My convictions are well settled and will be frankly and fully expressed when I am able to do so with justice to myself.

Yours truly,

A. G. CURTIN.

The following is the letter of Dr. Willard Parker, an eminent Physician of New York City, to Mrs. Gov. Curtin:

NEW YORK, Sept. 6th, 1872.

To Mrs. Gov. Curtin:

MY DEAR MADAM:—In answer to your inquiry, I would say that the Governor is in such a condition of mind and body, that without absolute rest and freedom from excitement, he can never recover.

Dr. Throop, of Scranton, Penn'a., who saw Gov. Curtin with me, in consultation, on Wednesday, fully concurred in this opinion.

Very truly yours,

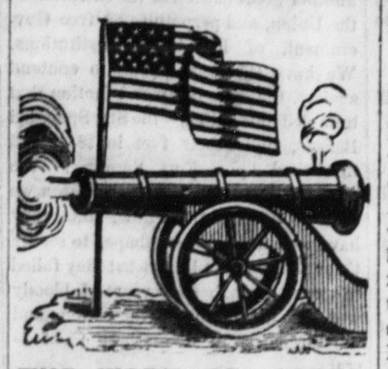
WILLARD PARKER.

FOR REGISTER.

Our Candidate for Register, &c. Henry Eckinroth is a one armed soldier, a first class man, and in every way qualified to fill the office for which he has been nominated. He can speak both the German and English language, indeed, he is a Pennsylvania German by birth, and speaks the English well. He is just the man our Centre county Germans have been wanting to fill that office for years. They want a man in this office with whom they can converse in their own language when they come here to have their business attended too.

Capt. Jno. I. Morrison can not speak the German language and hence must have an interpreter. Everybody knows how unpleasant this is for our German friends. Let us be true to ourselves and our German friends, and oust Capt. Morrison and elect the one armed soldier, Henry Eckenroth. People of Centre county, German farmers of Pennsvalley will you be true to yourselves; Will you, oh! will you, study your own best intersts?

Glorious Work!



THE WORK OF 1872!

BRING OUT THAT SAME OLD COON!

Vermont 26,000 Majority!

LOOK AT THE FIGURES!

Greeleyism and the Confederate Party Nowhere!

DID YOU HEAR THE NEWS FROM MAINE, &C., &C., &C., ETC.

LOOK AT OUR VICTORIES!

Republicans of Centre county, of Pennsylvania will we lag behind or be stragglers in this fight? Wherever elections have been held the victory has been in favor of Gen. Grant and his economical administration. Look how the great work of saving Republican Institutions and Universal Liberty, moves gloriously forward.

New Hampshire, after the "great" bolt, went into the election in March on the platform of Grant's re-election.—Result—The State redeemed from last year's defeat, and a handsome Republican gain.

Connecticut in April—Republican gain.

Rhode Island in April—Republican as usual.

Oregon in June, a month after Greeley's nomination at Cincinnati—Redeemed from years of Democratic rule, and made Republican through and through. Large Republican gain.

North Carolina in August—Redeemed from Democracy—Republican gain over 7,000.

West Virginia in August—Greeley Democratic candidate for Governor beaten in a Democratic State.

And now in September comes VERMONT, Horace Greeley's pet State, TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND MAJORITY!

The Senate is unanimously Republican and the House contains only Democrats enough to keep the party name on the records.

The gain is over FIVE THOUSAND and the whole vote in favor of GRANT by more than two to one.

And now comes the news from Maine. Glorious Maine. Maine the Pine Tree State, the home of the LUMBERMAN and the WORKINGMAN. The State of big trees and large intellects. Pennsylvania freemen send greeting to their noble brethern in Maine. We will re-echo the TIDINGS OF LIBERTY AND THE RIGHTS OF MAN on the 2nd Tuesday of October next.

The following dispatch was received here at 10 o'clock, A. M., by Jno. T. Johnston, Esq.:

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 9, 1872.

Jno. T. Johnston, Bellefonte, Pa.

We have carried Maine by sixteen thousand. Every county in the State claimed. All our Congressmen elected.

EDMUND BLANCHARD.

GREELEYISM DEAD.

The election in Maine has had a serious effect upon the Confederate party. They do not like to admit that they are whipped in Maine. Why not? Are they not overwhelmed by public sentiment in every state in which elections have been held.

The election in Maine settles the hash for Greeley. For him there is no hope. The Democratic party in attempting to swallow Greeley has swallowed itself.

For the benefit of our readers we give the popular vote of Maine for the last four years. It is as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Temp.	Rep. Maj.
1868—Governor....	75,694	55,421	....	20,466
1868—President....	70,490	49,996	....	20,494
1869—Governor....	61,578	39,824	4,742	6,981
1870—Governor....	54,040	44,534	....	9,506
1871—Governor....	59,787	48,196	....	10,681

REMENBER the 28th inst., is the last day on which you can be registered.

The game of brag is played. It can not, it will not win. Every intelligent Democrat or Greeley-rat in Bellefonte knows that the Democratic meeting which assembled in the Court House, on the 27th ult., to hear Charles R. Buckalew defend his treasonable record, was the smallest meeting that has been held in this county at the August Court for years. The house was not at any time, more than two-thirds full. And such a speech! And such a speaker!! Everybody was disappointed. Democrats left the room while he was talking. Went away disgusted. They said "is this the Buckalew of whom we have heard so much?"

Here we declare, fearless of contradiction, the meeting was a fizzle and Buckalew damaged his cause. He cannot explain his record. In the light of his own doctrine of State Rights he is a meaner and more despicable rebel than Jno. C. Breckinridge or Jeff Davis.—They claim that under their cherished Calhoun doctrine of State Rights they did but go with their States, while Buckalew holding the same doctrine and fraternizing with the same men and rebels went against his own State in every vote he ever cast in the U. S. Senate. Oh, shame! where is thy blush?

How can he or his Democratic friends explain his record? He is, and was, a meaner rebel than either of the above named men. For this reason the people will never permit him to be Governor of Pennsylvania—his own State which he betrayed and deserted in the darkest hour of her history and when the rebels were killing her sons and destroying her towns all along the border. No! no!! The people have not forgotten Mr. Buckalew's record, and by their votes on the 2nd Tuesday of October next, they will sink him into a grave of political infamy, so low and deep that even his memory will rot.

They ask the people to forget his record. Can we forget Chancellorville, Libby Prison and Belle Isle? Can Pennsylvanians forget that this man Buckalew was in the plot to burn our cities, poison the waters, and spread loathsome diseases all over the country?

The people will not forget. And we dare and defy the Watchman to contradict or explain away the record of Mr. Buckalew, or his treasonable votes in the Senate of the United States.

It is his record which condemns him. It is his record that knocks all the talk and eloquence out of him. It is hard climbing up hill. He is a doomed man and Gen. Hartranft, the brave soldier, the true patriot and honest man will be the next Governor of the old Keystone.

CAN MR. BUCKALEW AFFORD IT?

Mr. Buckalew's supporters, in their assaults on Gen Hartranft and certain of his political friends, says the Pittsburg Commercial, have so far outraged decency, and transcended the rule of propriety, that he will have no reason to complain if he is retorted upon in a manner particularly disagreeable to himself, though strictly according to the facts. If this mode of warfare is to be kept up, it may be necessary, in self-defense, to go as far back as 1842-3, when Mr. Buckalew was less distinguished as a lawyer in Columbia county than he has since become. As to this, it is for himself to determine.—A neglect to call off his dogs in time may give rise to a repetition of the self-accusation: "I have no excuses to offer, no reasons to give, except that for the time being I was a fool," etc. Does Mr. Buckalew understand, and can he afford this?

THE ARGUMENT.—President Grant in the month of August reduced the national debt to the amount of TEN MILLION SEVEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX THOUSAND, SIX HUNDRED AND THIRTY-FIVE DOLLARS AND EIGHTY-NINE CENTS. Who can do better than this? Why should any honest man desire a change? Can the Watchman tell? Why should Democrats vote for Horace Greeley their life long enemy in preference to Gen. Grant who is so rapidly paying off the national debt and who has given us the most prosperous times this country has ever enjoyed? Honest Democrats if you desire the return of financial panics and return of the idleness, suffering and squalled poverty which existed in 1857, vote for Horace Greeley.

BE sure to see that you are assest and registered.

GRANT'S RECORD.

In War And In Peace.

IN WAR.

"No terms except unconditional and immediate surrender can be accepted. I propose to move immediately on your works." To Gen. Buckner, at Fort Donaldson. Feb. 16, 1862.

"The effusion of blood you propose stopping by this course can be ended at any time you may choose by an unconditional surrender of the city and garrison."—To Gen. Pemberton, at Vicksburg, July 3, 1862.

"I propose to fight it out on this line if it takes all Summer."—To Secretary Stanton, from before Spottsylvania, May 11, 1864.

"I care nothing for promotion, so long as our arms are successful."—Grant to Sherman. Feb. 1862.

"If my course is not satisfactory, remove me at once. I do not wish in any way to impede the success of our arms."—Grant to Halleck, Feb. 5, 1862.

"No theory of my own will ever stand in the way of my executing in good faith any order I may receive from those in authority over me."—Grant to Secretary Chase, May 26, 1863.

IN PEACE.

"This is a Republic, where the will of the people is the law of the land."—Grant's Letter to President Johnson, August, 1867.

"I shall have no policy of my own to interfere against the will of the people,"—Grant's Letter, May 29, 1868.

"Human liberty is the only true foundation of human government."—Grant's Letter to the citizens of Memphis.

"Let us have peace."—Grant's Letter May 29, 1868.

FROM HIS ANNUAL MESSAGES.

"On all leading questions agitating the public mind I will always express my views to Congress, and urge them according to my judgment, and when I think it advisable will exercise the constitutional privilege of interposing a veto to defeat measures which I oppose. But all laws will be faithfully executed, whether they meet my approval or not. I shall on all subjects have a policy to recommend, but none to enforce against the will of the people."

"It has been the aim of the Administration to enforce honesty and efficiency in all public offices. Every public servant who has violated the trust placed in him has been the fault of the system established by law and custom for making appointments, or the fault of those who recommend for Government positions persons not sufficiently well known to them personally, or who give letters indorsing the character of office seekers without a proper sense of the grave responsibility which such a course devolves upon them. A civil service reform which can correct this abuse is much desired. A salutary lesson has been taught the careless and the dishonest public servant in the great number of prosecutions and convictions of the last two years."

"The tax collected from the people has been reduced more than $80,000,000 per annum. By steadiness in our present course, there is no reason why, in a few short years, the national tax-gatherer may not disappear from the door of the citizen almost entirely. With the revenue stamp dispensed by postmasters in every community; a tax upon liquors of all sorts, and tobacco in all its forms; and by a wise adjustment of the tariff, which will put a duty only upon those articles which we could dispense with, known as the luxuries, and on those which we use more of than we produce, revenue enough may be raised, after a few years of peace and consequent reduction of indebtedness, to fulfil all our obligations. A further reduction of expenses, in addition to a reduction of interest account may be relied on to make this practicable.—Revenue reform, if it means this, has my hearty support."

"I renew my recommendation that the public lands be regarded as a heritage to our children, to be disposed of only as required for occupation and to actual settlers."

"The true prosperity and greatness of a nation is to be found in the elevation and education of its laborers."

"The citizen of the United States, whether native or adopted, who discharges his duty to his country, is entitled to its complete protection. While I have a voice in the direction of affairs, I shall not consent to imperil this sacred right by conferring it upon ficticious or fraudulent claimants."

"On my assuming the responsible duties of Chief Magistrate of the United States, it was with the conviction that three things were essential to its peace prosperity, and fullest development.—First among these, is strict integrity in fulfilling all our obligations. Second, to secure protection to the person and property of the citizen of the United States, in each and every portion of our common country, wherever he may choose to move, without reference to original nationality, religion, color, or politics, demanding of him only obedience to the laws and proper respect for the rights of others. Third, union of all the States—with equal rights—indestructible by any constitutional means."

"In conclusion, I would sum up the policy of the Administration to be thorough enforcement of every law; a faithful collection of every tax provided for; economy in the disbursement of the same; a prompt payment of every debt of the nation; a reduction of taxes as rapidly as the requirements of the country will admit; reductions of taxation and tariff, to be so arranged as to afford the greatest relief to the greatest number; honest and fair dealings with all other peoples, to the end that war, with all its blighting consequences, may be avoided, but without surrendering any right or obligation due to us; a reform in the treatment of Indians, and in the whole civil service of the country; and, finally in securing a pure, untrammeled ballot, where every man entitled to cast a vote may do so, just once, at each election, without fear or molestation, or proscription on account of his political faith, nativity, or color.

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—FOUR MONTHS—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of FIVE, TEN, TWENTY or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in LARGE CLUBS from every township and Borough in the county. IN EVERY CASE THE MONEY MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

In pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act relating to the elections of this Commonwealth," passed the 2d day of June, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby given that the General Election will be opened between the hours of 6 and 7 o'clock, in the ferenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

And in and by the said act I am further directed to give notice "that every person except Justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit and trust under the government of the United States, of the State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer of otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the Legislative or Executive or Judiciary department of this State, or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge, or any other officer of any election, shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for."

The inspectors and judges of the elections shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the district, to which they respectively belong, before seven o'clock in the morning, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a Judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward, or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at such election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freemen of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in the State six months; Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in an election district as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the commissioners, unless first, he produce a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and gives satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or oil failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim the right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him, that he is of age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person thus admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax; or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes on the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided in the State for one year or more his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided in the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding such election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is in said district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of the residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward, or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer or any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to Court, where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person, not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election of this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in any term not exceeding three months.

If any one shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or who shall procure another to do so, he or they offending, shall on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law (except the sons of qualified citizens), shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

REGISTRY LAW.

I also give official notice to the electors of Centre county, that, by an act entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April 17, A. D. 1869, it is provided as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the successors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has recieved from the county Commissioners under the eight section of the act of fifteenth April, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessments, of whose removal into the same shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. As soon as the revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in his district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district, and if so, to take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so, to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain, by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of the work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper; and if he is, the number of its residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also the occupation of the person, and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reasons of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if a person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him, and the amount assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners, who shall add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SEC. 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observation and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made but as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who, shall prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door or on the house where election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such applicant, and mark opposite each name "C. N," and immediately assess him with a tax, noting, as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designed to be, marking in all such cases the letters opposite the name, "N." or "D. I." as the case may be. If the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization, and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners, in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessors, and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door of or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments have been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October of each year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following, make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return required to be made by him by the second section of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full and correct copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons so returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township, or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks, to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township, or precinct, on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday in October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SEC. 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district of which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election; which witness shall take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the fact stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter, and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein, and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election, that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where, and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affidavit was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affidavit shall state on his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any. but of the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit, that he is a native born citizen of the United States, or if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affiant, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization; and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be allowed to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes; the said affidavits of all persons making such claims, and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list, and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the Prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the Prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are: if the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant to vote on age, the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years consecutively a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year; and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court, but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the indorsement required as aforesaid on said naturalization certificate."

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of, or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be persued, in all respects as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general elections in October. The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner, in all respects, as is required at the general election in October.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined, as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday in October in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. SEC. 12. If any prothonotary, clerk or the deputy of either, or any person, shall, affix the seal of office to any naturalization paper, or permit the same to be affixed, or give out, or cause or permit the same to be given out in blank, whereby it may be fraudulently used, or furnish a naturalization certificate to any person who shall not have been duly examined and sworn in open court, in the presence of some of the judges thereof, according to act of Congress, or shall aid in, connive at, or in any way permit the issue of any fraudulent naturalization certificate, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; or if any one shall fraudulently use any such certificate of naturalization, knowing that it was fraudulently issued, or shall vote, or attempt to vote thereon, or if any one shall vote or attempt to vote on any certificate of naturalization not issued to him, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor; and either or any of the persons, their aiders or abettors, guilty of either of the misdemeanors aforesaid, shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the proper penitentiary for a period not exceeding three years.

SEC. 13. Any person who on oath or affirmation, in or before any court of this State, or officer authorized to administer oaths, shall, to procure a certificate of naturalization, for himself or any other person, willfully depose, declare or affirm any matter to be fact, knowing the same to be false, or shall in like manner deny any matter to be fact knowing the same to be true, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and any certificate of naturalization issued in pursuance of any such deposition, declaration or affirmation, shall be null and void; and it shall be the duty of the court issuing the same, upon proof being made before it, that it was fraudulently obtained to take immediate measures for recalling the same for cancellation, and any person who shall vote, or attempt to vote, on any paper so obtained, or who shall in any way aid in, connive at, or have any agency whatever in the issue, circulation or use of any fraudulent naturalization certificates, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof shall undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than two years, and pay a fine not more than one thousand dollars, for every such offense, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN
BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid nor is it a doctered liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a MOST POWERFUL TONIC AND ALTERATIVE, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

DR. WELL'S EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA, retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

IS THERE WANT OF ACTION IN YOUR LIVER & SPLEEN? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotche, Felons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c., &c.,

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

HAVE YOU A DYSPEPTIC STOMACH? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the Blood, Dropsical Tendency, General Weakness or Lassitude.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhœa or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS? You must procure instant relief of you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases. JOHN Q. KELLOGG, 18 Platt St., New York, Sole Agent for United States. Price One Dollar per Bottle. Send for Circular. 36-4t

ANOTHER DEMOCRAT LEAVES THE SINKING SHIP.—We neglected to notice the other day that Dr. Geo. W. Porter, son of the late ex-Governor Porter, and postmaster under Buchanan's administration, had been elected president of the Grant club of the Sixth ward. Mr. Porter has always, like his father, advocated the ultra doctrines of Democracy, and spoke and voted for the party in the foremost ranks—but Greeley and Buckalew are too much for him; he has, therefore, placed himself at the head of the Sixth ward Grant club, and we have no doubt that a large number of his friends, and of those of his lamented father, will aid in the election of the Republican State and county ticket.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

[From the Sunday Transcript.

A BLAST FROM BUCKALEW.

Politicians proverbially make queer records, and their explanation and defence of their records are queerer than the records themselves. Let us take, for instance, the case of Mr. Chas. R. Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor, and review his career in the light of history and in full view of his recent speech at Lancaster. In that speech Mr. Buckalew defends his "war record," and strange as it may appear in a Buchanan Democrat, makes bold to claim that he was "trooly loil." As an introduction to his audience, Mr. Buckalew remarks that though "I have known many of your people many years, it has never happened that I was with you in your popular assemblages," which, considering the speaker's selfish and aristocratic tastes, we can readily believe, it is not being his fashion to mingle in "popular assemblages" or among the masses except when begging for their votes. But let that pass. Mr. Buckalew starts out by saying that "there is odium, suspicion and some measure of disgrace in public affairs in this State," which is quite true as we shall show, and he argues hence that his election to the Governorship is necessary as a matter of course. The remedy, we fear, is worse than the complaint. Mr. Buckalew, before he was appointed Minister to Ecuador, served six years in the State Senate, and afterwards six years in the Senate of the United States. He is now in the third year of his present term as State Senator. In all this legislative experience, extending over a period of fifteen years, we challenge him to point to a single act of vital moment or of lasting benefit to the human family that originated and found its place upon the statute book as a monument of his wisdom, foresight of statesmanship. The echo of political abstractionists, his career as a State or National legislator has been fitted to the grooves prepared by abler hands, and his status rests simply upon the pigmy utterances of the thought of giants. Thus we find him, as a legislator, in full cry of the favor of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, championing the Border Ruffianism in Kansas, and in open antagonism with the true Democracy of the land who sought to avert the bitter war which Pierce, Buchanan and their purblind followers brought about. The "record" which he made in all that fearful time, we shall see in time.

But Mr. Buckalew informs us that "there is odium, suspicion and some measure of disgrace in public affairs in State." Taking it for granted that he knows whereof he speaks, wherefore is it that he, a sworn Senator of Pennsylvania, does not detail the origin, cause and all the underlying and flagrant facts, with names, dates and circumstances? In all his terms in the Legislature when the Democratic party had a majority, or when the Republican party had a majority, has he attempted to lay bare any single one of the iniquities at which he hints, but has not the manhood to specify? In the whole of his long service, has Charles R. Buckalew, with bribery and corruption going on under his very nose in the legislative halls, ever risen in his place as a Senator and dared to denounce what he declares to be patent and full of "odium, suspicion and some disgrace?" Indeed, we may ask and challenge a reply, against what measure of bought legislation—legislation notoriously bought by railroads, by banking monopolies and by corporations of every grade—against what measure of bought legislation did this Uriah Heap lift his honest voice, oppose by his honest vote, or lay bare by honest exposure! In sooth for what one of all these infamous acts did not Charles R. Buckalew cast his legislative vote, and crown with the splendor of his collosal statesmanship? Why, claiming to be a Democrat, he has been foremost of all men in advocacy of "special legislation" for the favored few; and to-day, speaking of "Rings," there is not a politician in Pennsylvania who stands higher with the Railroad Rings led by Aleander K. McClure, and the Boom Ring headed by "Horse" Herdic, and all the rest of the "Rings" that prosper by corrupht legislation than this Charles R. Buckalew who is traveling in tears over the Commonwealth. And this is the reason that, knowing, as he claims to know, of all the venality and rascality abounding in Harrisburg, he has not dared, and does not dare, to-day or at any future day, to speak as a Senator in denunciation of the foully infamous transactions, in name and in detail, of the corporations and their agents who, year after year, pollute the Capitol of the Commonwealth. Is not the receiver as bad as the theft? Is not he who conceals a crime the equal of the scoundrel who commits it? Is not the compounder of a felony—and what felony is more infamous than that of corrupting the legislature of the people?—as guilty as the felon who consumates it? If yea, on what ground can Charles R. Buckalew, sworn to faithfully serve the people of Pennsylvania, claim their suffrages in the face of the fact that, while venality and shame were stalking all about him, he had not the courage, he had not the manhood, he had not the decent honesty to brand it from his Senate seat with all the warmth and vigor of a truthful and a faithful man? He is not blind.—He is not deaf. He is not dumb. He is simply silent while the honor of his native State is being violated, her legislative halls polluted and the rights of her citizens being trafficked away for cash. All that he vouchsafes her outraged people is a string of glittering generalities, with neither names, dates or circumstances, and a miserable mouthing about "odium, suspicion and some measure of disgrace in public affairs" which would not exist if Charles R. Buckalew had discharged his duty with the fearlessness of an honest man and in utter disregard of the opinions or interests of the "Railroad Ring," and all the "Rings" that have made the Pennsylvania Legislature the synonym of sordid shame. And yet he asks to be made a Governor.!

Mr. Buckalew, "trooly loil" as he claims to be, is averse to "the cry of the people—loyalty as in war times." He thinks that that ought to be stopped, although he ventures upon a vindication of his particular "war record." Let us see what this "war record" was. In the fall of 1860 the practical work of secession was begun. That it would be attempted was known by Buchanan, his Cabinet and by the public men of the period long before. One by one the resolutions of the Southern Legislatures were passed. One by one the Southern Senators and Representatives went out. One by one the members of Buchanan's Cabinet withdrew. The Star of the West had been fired upon while going to the relief of a national garrison. The President of the nation was inaugurated at the point of the bayonet. Pennsylvanians, Democrats and Republicans, had been shot down in the streets of Baltimore while going to the protection of the National Capitol. At last the Old Flag was fired upon, and, as if by holy inspiration, the whole North rallied to the standard of their country. "The Federal Union must be preserved" was sworn by every patriot lip. Democrats, Republicans, true men everywhere lent every energy of heart and mind to the nation's cause. Troops poured upon the President and words of cheer went out from Union homes. Pennsylvania burned with the fervor of an earnest patriotism. Patterson, McClellan, Heintzleman, Coulter, Ent, Negle, Kane, Hartranft, Campbell, Wistar, Sam. Randall, Hambright, Ballier, Davis, Reno, Mulholland, Negley, Humphreys, Reynolds, Bohlen, Stone, Allen, Meade, McCall, Doubleday, Crawford, Slemmer, Lewis, Gregg, Franklin, Cullum, Rickets, Meredith, Hofmann, Butler, Price, Richter, Jones, Averill, Rippey, Murphy, McCandless, Pat. McDonough, and a hundred thousand men trod proudly the path of patriotism and duty. Two years and more went by, and, in victory or defeat, the national impulse never flagged—two years and more of slaughter, and sacrifice, and sorrow. In all that time, where was Charles R. Buckalew, and what word of cheer was given by him in the hour of the nation's fate? No one can answer this better than himself, and as, like Col. Forney, we like "fair play," we proceed to give Buckalew's own record. "Shortly after my election (to the United States Senate,) in July, 1863, I prepared an essay upon the existing political situation in this country, and especially with reference to the war that was then pending." Bearing in mind the date, the reader will observe, that, while Pennsylvania had raised and put in the field one hundred and eighty-three regiments, and while tens of thousands of her sons had been maimed or killed in battle, and while every true heart was throbbing with prayerful anxiety, and every manly voice was raised in the Union cause, Mr. Charles R. Buckalew sat stolid and indifferent for twenty-seven months, and only declared himself in "an essay" after he was elected to the Senate. The temple was fired, the incendiary was still plying his torch, the edifice threatened to crumble away, and its loyal sentinel, in view of all, sat quietly down, like a statesman, to discuss in "an essay" the danger of fire and the boldness of the incendiary, without any attempt to arrest either. But even this was enforced duty. It will be remembered that the Democratic party, in 1862, on its war record, swept the country along with Pennsylvania. It thus secured the Legislature by a majority of one. The battles of Gettysburg and Vicksburg had been won, and the end was supposed to be near at hand. It was safe then to discuss abstract questions, and especially so as Mr. Buckalew could not be disturbed in his place for six long years. He could parade platitudes for patriotism, but in so doing, he could deceive nobody as to the fixed fact that from the outset of the war, for two years and three months, and at a time, too, when his country needed everything to save it from destruction, Chas. R. Buckalew never uttered one loyal word, or made a sign of fidelity to the Union.—For what he voted, we shall discuss again. His feeling is typified in his silence as stated by himself. It is further illustrated by the singular circumstance that both he and Judge Black accidently met at Niagara Falls afterwards, and held intercourse with Holcombe, the traitor, whose mission was to "disrupt the Eastern and Western States," and to "carry the war," in the words of Jeff. Davis, "where food for the sword and torch await our armies in the densely populated cities. * * * * which took years of industry and millions of money to build," To verify this prediction, and to fulfill the promise of President Pierce, that "the fighting will not be along Mason and Dixon's line merely," but "it will be witdin our own borders, in our own streets." was Holcombe's work, and, with such a scoundrel, Buckalew, in his loyalty, found fitting companionship. It will take more than his statesmanship, or the testimony of his conspirators to satisfy the people of Pennsylvania that this hob-nobbing was not purposed and premeditated.

The rest of this most remarkable effort is of the usual material—a clamor for "reform" without any plan of reaching it except the poor reccurse of Buckalew's election. He suggests no measures of immediate relief, much less does he pledge himself to any direct policy of action. His pledges are not worth the breath required to utter them, and the "reform" that would be brought about may be guessed after reviewing his faithlessness as a Senator. Divested of its froth, this Lancaster pronunciamento is the lamest and tamest appeal that this campaign has has yet evoked. As a defence it falls of its own weight—while, as a campaign document it is a thousand times worse than a wet blanket. If Mr. Buckalew proposes a canvass of the State on that line he will discover long before October that what he knows about campaigning is infinitesimally little.

IN 1860 there were in the States which went into the rebellion 763,867 farms. In 1870 the number had increased to 1,035,210. Does this exhibit show that the Southern States have been ground under the heel of oppression? Does agriculture flourish under a despotism such as the Greeley organs and orators would have us believe has been exercised over the South since the close of the war? What better proof is needed of the benificent legislation of the Republican party, and the executive administration of the laws, than this simple and undeniable fact that the South is more prosperous in its agricultural pursuits than it ever was before? The same holds good as to its manufactures, which have also largely increased. Four years more of a Republican administration will see the effects of the war almost wholly obliterated in the peace and prosperity which must inevitably follow.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

OUR DEAD.—As far as can be ascertained there are interred in the different cemeteries in this county, including the seventy-four recognized as national, 307,064 Union soldier of the late war, of which 141,060 are unknown. And yet, with this terrible fact before them, there are men who are willing, by voting for Horace Greeley, to have another civil war.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY, SS:

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Clearfield County, Greeting: Whereas, by virtue of a writ of fieri facias, bearing teste the 22d day of March, A. D. 1872, we commanded you, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the Derby Coal Company of Pennsylvania, late of your county, yeoman, in your bailiwick, you should cause to be levied as well a certain debt of $4610.25, which W. T. Shirley use of Charles Fincks in our County Court of Common Pleas, of the county aforesaid, before Judges at Clearfield, recovered against him, as also, $24 like money which to the said Plaintiff in our said county Court were adjudged for his damages which to him had accrued by occasion of the detention of that debt; and that you should have the moneys before our Judges, at Clearfield, at our county Court of Common Pleas, there to be held for the county of Clearfield, on the first Monday of June, to render to the said Plaintiff for his debt and damages aforesaid, whereof the said Defendant were convict. At which day, before our Judges, at Clearfield, you returned that by virtue of the said writ to you directed, you had seized and taken in execution a certain tract of land situate partly in Morris township, Clearfield county, partly in Rush township, Centre county, Pennsylvania, adjoining, and bounded by tracts surveyed on warrants to Jacob Wideman, Robert Glenn, David Sanch, and George Habacker, containing three hundred and fifty-four acres more or less, and being the same tract surveyed on warrant to Peter Yarnell. Also one other tract situate principally in Rush twp., Centre county, and balance in Morris twp., Clearfield county, Pa. Beginning at the maple corner of Jesse Yarnell, thence by same north 70½° west of 193½ perches to maple on bank of Moshannon Creek, thence down the same 719 perches to a post, thence by land of Jacob Rush south 68° west, 102 perches to the place of beginning, containing 426¼ acres and allowance and being surveyed on warrant to Benjamin Martin, late of the estate of the said the Derby Coal Company of Pennsylvania, with the appurtenances, which said tract of land and premises remained in your hands unsold for the want of buyers, so that you could not have the said moneys in the said writ mentioned at the day and place therein mentioned, to render to the said Plaintiff, for his debt and damages aforesaid, as by the said writ you were commanded. And that the residue of the execution of said writ appeared in a certain schedule thereunto annexed; by which schedule or inquisition it appears that the rents, issues and profits of the above described property, in your said return upon our said writ thereunto annexed, are not of a clear yearly value beyond all reprisals sufficient, within the space of seven years, to satisfy the debt and damages in our said writ mentioned.

We therefore command you, that the said tract of land, with the appurtenances, so by you seized and taken into execution, you expose to sale, and that you have the moneys before our Judges, at Clearfield, at our county Court of Common Pleas, there to be held on the 4th Monday of September next, to render to said Plaintiff for his debt and damages. And have you then and there this writ.

Witness, the Hon. C. A. Mayer, President Judge of our said Court, at Clearfield, the 7th day of June, 1872. A. C. TATE,

And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facility Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.

GEN. HARTRANFT.

THE CALUMNIES AGAINST HIM REACTING.

THE TESTIMONY OF AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL.

From the Philadelphia Telegraph.]

If persistent, unmitigated, unwarranted abuse will suffice to beat the Republican ticket in the State at the October election, then our ingenious Democratic friends can confidently count on victory. Gen. Hartranft enjoys the distinction of being the best abused man in the Commonwealth for the time being. If the multitude of charges which has been brought against him could be proven, he would certainly be a most unfit person to be trusted with the chief magistracy of the State. But to tell the truth our Democratic friends have gone a little too far; they have over reached themselves, and forced candid readers and voters to believe that the persistent defamation of the Republican candidate for Governor is merely a desperate device to insure his defeat. From the serious charges which have been brought against Gen. Hartranft since the opening of the campaign, he has been fully vindicated. Intelligent people might very readily be persuaded that neither he nor any other candidate for office presented an embodiment of all the public and private virtues. Nowadays it is not customary to find men of such commanding respectability engaging in the struggle for office of any kind. If we desire to put our finger upon a man who is beyond the breath of suspicion; we must go outside of the political world to find him. But when we are told that Gen. Hartranft is not only as bad as the general run of office-holders and office-seekers; but a thousand times worse than any man who ever had the audacity to aspire to any official station, we naturally reserve to ourselves the privilege of doubtiug until the positive and tangible proof is brought to our attention and forced upon our convictions. Gen. Hartranft has, in fact, been so belabored with unscrupulous partisan abuse as to be almost invested with a halo of martyrdom, and it is questionable if the desperate endeavors made by his political enemies to insure his defeat have not tended to strengthen, rather than weaken him before the public.

Pennsylvania, as every sensible person knows, is a strongly Republican State, and on the square issue is bound to go Republican by a very large majority. The only possible chance of success for the Democrats, therefore, is to create a diversion by transforming the struggle over the Governorship into a mere personal issue. If, by the persistent blackening of General Hartranft's character, they can succeed in sinking out of sight the issues at stake, they stand a slim chance of getting hold of the State government for the next three years. It is an old trick—one that has been tried over and over again, and over and over again exposed and brought to naught, as will, to all appearance, be the result in this case.

The Republican ticket presented in the State at large, and in this city, for the verdict of intelligent voters at the October election, is unusually strong, and unusually unexceptionable, and we can see no substantial reason why any sincere Republican should sacrifice his convictions by scratching the whole, or any considerable portion of it. In regard to the candidates for legislative honors in this city, we regret that we cannot speak in terms of unqualified praise. Among the list are some men who are worthy of the trust, and who will undoubtedly prove themselves trustworthy if elected. But there is an unwholesome admixture of the old "rooster" element, which in due time we shall endeavor to discern and expose. Aside from the Legislature, however, the Republican party of the city and State presents a ticket that is exceptionally good, and in every case worthy the support of all good Republicans. The Democracy being in a decided minority in both the city and the State, it is necessary for them to create a diversion in the ranks of the Republicans on the question of personal fitness; but, as we have already intimated, their zeal has got the better of their discretion, and they have overreached themselves. If they do not discover their mistake sooner, they will be fully convinced of it on the day after the election.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt. The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress.

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty, strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article! A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

SPEAR FOR THESE REMEDIES.
Who would ask for more Dignified or Stronger Testimony?

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON. JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

REMEMBER
THAT HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Will Cure every Case of MARASMUS,
Or Wasting away of the Body.
REMEMBER
THAT HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by Express to any locality, upon application to the PRINCIPAL OFFICE, at the GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 631 Arch St., Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. EVANS, PROPRIETOR.
Formerly C. M. JACKSON & CO.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctered, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

GET REGISTERED.—Republicans who are not yet registered will please bear in mind that Saturday, September 28th is the last day for attending to that duty. Examine the lists at once, and see if your name is there, as well as that of your neighbor. Do not neglect this important duty.

LADIES, why do you so often complain to your husband and friends that you "are never free from pain," and "it seems as though your back would break?" No one likes to hear complaints, therefore Use Pain Cure Oil. It will surely cure you. Sold Wholesale and Retail by F. P. Green Druggist Bellefonte Pa.

FURNITURE.—Jno. Brackbill, the upright citizen and enterprising dealer in furniture of all kinds, has just received another large lot from Boston. He is selling furniture extremely low. He has parlor sets the like of which has never been equaled in this town, and he sells them at reduced prices. Persons needing furniture should call and see Mr. Brackbill before purchasing elsewhere. He will do just what he promises.

SAD.—Free-love, it appears, has had an illustration in Philipsburg, the wife of John Gowland having gone off, or attempted to go, with another man by the name of Pierce. John, however, (good soul) was not willing to part thusly with the wife of his bosom, so he had Pierce arrested, together with Mrs. Rausier, the mother of his wife. They are now in the jail at this place, awaiting trial.

Truly, the way of the transgressor is hard, as, witness Pierce is shut out from the sight of his adored one, and doomed to the company of a strong-minded mother-in-law, who, we believe, takes the ground that her daughter did right. Where is Horace Greeley, and Theodore Tilton, and Mrs. Woodhull?

GRANT AND GREELEY ON THE TRAIN.—On Monday evening the 2nd inst, on the train between Tyrone and Bellefonte, the political questions of the day were being mooted in a social way, when a gentlemen proposed to test the sentiment of the traveling public in regard to Grant and Greeley, by a vote. The proposition was accepted, and the vote taken. It resulted as follows; for Grant 38 votes and for Greeley 12. The traveling populace is a very fair thermometer of the political temperature, and the above result is a fair index of what the grand result will be in November next—The people will not deprive Greeley of the pleasure of chopping trees, pruning orchards, and raising pork and cabbage on the Chapaqua farm.

LECTURES.—The Undine Fire Company, in accordance with the announcement at the close of its lecture course last season has arranged to favor us this season with a complete course of Lectures by the ablest and most eloquent lecturers that appear on the stage. It has already engaged, positively, John B. Gough, James E. Murdoch, and Wendell Philips, if he lectures, and has applied for Charles Sumner and Daniel Dougherty. The course will be satisfactorily arranged, and be composed of the best talent in the country, and promises a literary treat and entertainment such as it has never before been the pleasure of our citizens to experience. We hope that the enterprise and effort put forth by the Undine Fire Company will be earnestly seconded and heartily encouraged by our people.

BURGLARY.—We learn that, on last Wednesday night, the 4th inst., the store of R. H. Duncan, Esq., at Spring Mills, this county, was burglariously entered and robbed. They got but little money, the amount we have not learned, and some ready-made clothing. The entrance was made by prying the door of the warehouse off its hinges, and, having in this way obtained an entrance to it, they were then compelled to bore through three doors, lined with sheet-iron, to gain access to the store. From all appearances the burglar or burglars were well acquainted with the store. It is a dangerous way of obtaining a livelihood, but as there are men prowling around the country who would rather steal (and take the risks) than go to work and make an honest living, we would advise our merchants in town and country, and farmers as well, to see that their locks are strong, and everything about them well secured.

[For the REPUBLICAN.]

THE Republicans of Bellefonte met in their Wigwam, as usual, on Saturday Evening, the 7th inst. President Roland Curtin in the chair, S. D. Gray, Secretary, pro tem. A. O. Furst being called upon, spoke of the great importance of the approaching election, and of the individual duties of Republicans, illucidating the fallacy of shaking hands over the bloody Chasm. Only those are affiliating now, in opposition to us, who counseled together in the past. Their associations have not changed. He went on to show that the Republican party have adyocated and established those principles of civil government more sacred to the American people, than any other, were now fully prepared to enjoy the perfect fulfilment of the same and of all promises made by its leaders. The Democratic party having accepted all that we have accomplished, make loud professions of their conversion, and hope by their coalition with Greeley and others, to regain place and power. Examine closely the record, the principles, the men of both parties, and then answer if you are willing to entrust all that we have won to those who have had no patriotic interests in common with us. Every act in the past having been in sympathy with those who sought to ruin when they could not rule. They now loudly admit their errors of the past. Is that sufficient merit? and it is all they claim to again entrust them with power? The great heart of the American people wells up with warm and patriotic pulsations, and their answer is emphatically in favor of him who has been tried and not found wanting. In 1876 we will celebrate the hundreth anniversary of our American Independence. What other man will be more fitted to be our Chief Magistrate then, than Gen. Grant—dearer to the American heart than any other—the second Saviour of his country.

S. D. Gray, Esq., was then called upon for a speech. This he declined, but assured the audience that he had every confidence in the election of Prof. Henry Meyer to the office of Prothonotary.

James Milliken, Esq., was then called upon, and defended, very ably, the interest of Home Protection; that the Republican party was the only party which advocated these principles, in which all, and especially the laboring men, are so vitally interested.

THE Republican Conferees of the 22d Senatorial District met on Friday, September 6th, at Tyrone, to nominate Constitutional Delegates. The following Conferees were in attendance: Mifflin county—John R. Garver, T. F. McCoy, and H. J. Culbertson. Juniata county—J. Hoffman, J. J. Patterson and Balsbach. Centre county—John T. Johnston, Wm. Shortlidge and S. D. Gray. Huntingdon county—George W. Johnston, Dr. Henry Orlady and John W. Mattern. Gen. T. F. McCoy was elected President, and S. D. Gray, Secretary. It having been decided to nominate two Constitutional delegates. The following gentlemen were presented as candidates: Huntingdon—Dr. Jno. McCulloch; Centre—A. O. Furst; Mifflin—D. W. Woods; Juniata—Dr. J. P. Sterrett. Having balloted six times without an election, it was decided that the Conferees vote for two candidates, which resulted as follows: McCulloch, 8; Furst, 4; Woods, 4; Sterrett, 8. On motion, the nomination of Dr. Jno. McCulloch and J. P. Sterrett, as Constitutional delegates was made unanimous.

IMPROVEMENT.—And finally! the eyes of our "Borough Dads" did, perchance, catch the shin-breaking piece of pavement on High St., between Vantries and Spring streets. Result, a new and elegant pavement in good style, and which offers inducements for pedestrians to test it feeling, while so doing, they are not in danger of life and limb.

Couldn't the eyes of the Council perchance rest on some more of the uneven and break-neck sidewalks that, to say the least, reflect damagingly on our town.

TINWARE.—Wm. L. Wolf & Son have, at their old stand on Allegheny st., a large assortment of the best tinware we have ever seen. It is a fixed fact that these men are determined to sell nothing but the very best. The senior member of the firm isone of the oldest and best tinners in the county. Spouting put up on short notice.

THE Evangelical Camp Meeting held in Pennsvalley was among one of the best ever held in this community. The meeting was under the auspices of Revs. Samuel Smith, P. E. and S. D. Bennington, Preacher in charge, assisted by Revs. J. M. Langsdort, J. Kreamer, M. Sloat, J. Derrick, W. Harris, A. Stableton and J. W. Lackey of the M. E. Church. The preaching was profound, directing itself to the hearts and consciences of those present. It is worthy of notice the energy and efficiency with which the Rev. Smith, P. E., applied the various points embraced in that beautiful injunction, "Go work in my Vineyard." The next was Rev. Harris from that all-absorbing thought "Let us not get weary in well doing." Next was Rev. Kreamer, a man of powerful physical ability, who preached in the German language and from the earnestness of the man we judge his discourse was powerful, though we did not understand it. Next was Rev. Sloat, a man of deep thought penetrating his subject and applying it with power. Next Rev. J. Derrick preached on Sunday evening. His sermon was pointed and many felt that the great head of the church was present. Rev. J. M. Longsdorf preached an interesting sermon from the words, "The Lord is a man of war. The Lord is his name." Rev. S. D. Bennington, Preacher in charge, preached in his telling and pointed manner. Rev. Bennington is a sound theologian and fails not to proclaim the whole counsel of God. At this point the childrens meeting formed an interesting feature in the exercises. Rev. A. Stableton, Junior Preacher, delivered an able discourse in German. After which Rev. J. W. Lackey, of the M. E. Church, preached a well timed and telling sermon, from these encouraging words, "But thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

The meeting was one of interest. To the spectator was demonstrated the fact, that all had a mind to the work. These were ministers of differet denominations having but one common end in view, the salvation of the people, and obeying the injunction of the Rev. Smith's text, "Go work in my Vineyard." The church was revived and many converted to God. We did not learn the number of conversions, but during the entire meeting a deep spiritual interest was manifest. During the short sojourn in the leafy grove many were enabled to exclaim,

"Yonder's my house and portion fair,
"My treasure and my heart are there."

On Monday of the meeting was commemorated the sufferings of the worlds Redeemer, something over one hundred partook of the emblems of the broken body and shed blood of the Savior. The meeting closed on Thursday morning, the 5th ult., all feeling that it was good for them to be there. Good order prevailed.

W. G.

BUCKALEW A GIFT TAKER.

Charles R. Buckalew is said to carry about him a watch with the following legend: "Presented to Hon. Charles R. Buckalew by the Brewers of Philadelphia, for defeating the Temperance Legislation in Pennsylvania:" We cannot believe this; for the Germans are furious at this same "Hon. Charles R. Buckalew" for being the author of the law which he presented in the Senate, April 18, 1854 (see Senate Journal of 1858, page 904), entitled "An act to protect certain domestic and private rights and prevent abuses in the sale and use of intoxicating liquors." This law inflicts a fine of fifty dollars and imprisonment for sixty days for furnishing liquors to persons of intemperate habits or to minors. The same law makes the liquor seller liable for civil damages to person or property caused by the use of liquors so sold or furnished. It also pays a premium of twenty dollars to any spy or informer who denounces to the authorities any liquor seller guilty of violating the law in this case, and makes the poor man, thus "pulled" by the informer or spy, pay his prosecutor, or persecutor—as the case may be—his fee of twenty dollars, and makes it a part of the costs of the case. Just four days after Mr. Buckalew presented this bill (to wit, April 22d, 1854,) he called it up, and "moved that the rules be suspended and the bill passed." In accordance with the request of Mr. Buckalew, the bill passed (see Senate Journal of 1854, page 969.) Probably the date of the legend on the watch from "the Brewers" is antecedent of the date of this act.

GRANT, WILSON AND HARTRANFT CLUB.—Let it be positively undestood that the Grant, Wilson and Hartranft Club meets regularly, every Saturday evening, at the WIGWAM, precisely at 8 o'clock. The Executive Committee has arranged a programme for the series of meetings during the campaign, that can't help but interest, entertain and instruct. So, let the citizens flock to the Wigwam on each Saturday evening, from this time until after the Presidential election, where the political canvass will be discussed and defined by able speakers.

A GRAND Republican Mass Meeting will be held in the Court House, on Tuesday Evening, Sept. 24th. Hon. Lemuel Todd, and other able speakers will address the meeting.

HOW THE STATE WILL GO.

A COMPLETE REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH IN OCTOBER.

[From the Philadelphia Telegraph-Independent]

THE CONTEST AT HOME.

The political situation in the State city has undergone but little change of late, and every indication still points to a complete Republican triumph at the October election. With the exception of some of the Legislative candidates, the city ticket is greatly superior to many which have preceded it, and is so excellent in its composition that no true Republican will be called upon to scratch any names from the list—excepting, always, when he comes to the Legislative portion. Philadelphia is a Republican city, and all that is needed to render the election of the Republican ticket a certainty is to place on that ticket the names of unexceptionable men. This year, happily, this has been done, and the result will be a triumphant success. The same is true of the State at large. Pennsylvania is a Republican State, and when the party lines are closely drawn, and the issue clearly defined on principle, there is no chance of a Democratic success.

Our Democratic friends are fully aware of this fact, and hence they have resorted to their traditional tricks. They have nothing at all to say about the principles involved in the contest, all their time and energies being devoted to the task of creating dissensions in the Republican ranks by a merciless warfare upon a portion of the ticket. If the Democracy can succeed in transforming the contest into a personal struggle, they have a faint hope of carrying the State. To do this it is necessary for them to blacken the character of one or two of the Republican candidates, and they have gone about this hopeless task in a manner which does little credit to their skill as partisans even. A few pointed charges, fully sustained by unquestionable proof, would suffice to so weaken the Republican ticket as to render its election gravely doubtful. But the Pennsylvania Democracy have been kept at a distance from the flesh-pots of the political Egypt so long that their eagerness to get at them has at last assumed a frantic aspect. They are therefore exceedingly indiscreet in the selection of their weapons, and so far forgetful of the intelligence of the mass of Republican voters as to rely for success upon the wholesale repetition of stale slanders which are incapable of substantiation. By excess of zeal in this direction they have done infinite harm to their desperate cause, and convinced observing men of the insincerity of their motives and the unscrupulousness of their means. At the October election the Republican party will present an almost unbroken front in Pennsylvania and Philadelphia alike, and it is exceedingly doubtful if aspiring Democrat can succeed in slipping into office through a break in the Republican lines.

PHILADELPHIA SEPT. 6, 1872.

HON. S. B. AXTELL, Late member of Congress from San Francisco, Cal.

DEAR SIR.—During your recent visit to your relative, the Rev. Dr. Saunders, of our city, we learn that you, an able, consistent and distinguished member of the Democratic Party, have, in obedience to the dictates of political duty, determined to support General Grant for re-election. Your position, as a Member of Congress, for the past four years, has furnished abundant opportunities to understand thoroughly the real issues which divide the country, and your personal integrity of character necessarily adds force to your opinions. We should be pleased to hear from your own lips an expression of the reasons which have determined your present political action, and beg you to name an early day when it will suit your convenience to address a public meeting of our fellow citizens.

PHILADELPHIA, SEPT. 7, 1872.

TO ELI K. PRICE, ESQ., and others:

GENTLEMEN:—Your polite note, inviting me to deliver a political address in Philadelphia has been received. It will afford me pleasure to do so upon any evening which you may appoint. I have, as you suggest, been placed in a position where I could observe General Grant and study the policy of his administration. I have no hesitation whatever in affirming that I believe it to be for the best interests of our beloved country, that he should continue to be its Chief Executive officer for another term especially in view of the safe and steady financial policy which has distinguished his administration, protecting all the important business interests of the country from any shock, and which could not be suddenly changed without producing the most disastrous results. I believe him to be a sincere, self-relying and just man; above fear, and free from merited reproach in the conduct of his great office. I feel that his grand battle won reputation is the property and in the keeping of all the citizens of the Republic; and believing this I could not retain my self-respect if I should remain silent while he is being cruelly and wantonly assaulted and stabbed in the house of his friends.

Yours respectfully,

S. B. AXTELL.

EMIL JOSEPH & BRO.,—Will receive, next week, a large and superior assortment of fall and winter goods. They are good men and deal on the square with every body.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This LINE has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R,, Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

ATTENTION, LUMBERMEN AND FARMERS.—John Powers is receiving his Fall stock of Boots and Shoes, among which will be found "The Star Boot," without doubt the best boot ever brought to this place. Call in, one and all, and see for yourselves. He offers to sell the "Lock Haven French Calf Boot" for $4.50, and "Prince Alexis" high-cut Gaiter for $2.75. Ladies wear and all else correspondingly cheap. Call in, and you will find that John makes good all he says.

"How's this for low."

Don't forget the place, opposite the Bush House. 35-2t.

FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers for sale, stock, good-will and fixtures of Harness Shop and House Furnishing Goods of his establishment, No. 45, Main St., Lock Haven, Pa., one of the best business points west of Phila. for the trade. I am not a harness maker, and wish to give my attention to some other business. This is a rare chance, seldom offered, being one of the best business stands in the city, and centrally located. Stock will be reduced eight hundred dollars if desired by the purchaser.

J. CONKLIN,
35-1m. Lock Haven, Pa.

TOBACCO, &c.—Ed. Fortney, at his Tobacco Store in the "Our House" building on the corner of Allegheny and Bishop sts., is now holding out superior inducements to the lovers of good tobacco, snuff and segars, to purchase from him. He keeps constantly on hand, a large supply of the best brands. He also has a superior lot of meerschaum, laurel and other pipes, paper collars, &c. ☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunkle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
